Striker Shot by a Non-Union Workman at Cleveland—A Mob Attempts to Lynch Him—The Police Makes Charge. CLEVELAND, O., July 3.—Eloodshed again marked the trouble at the Brown hoisting works Thursday afternoon. Wm. Rettger, one of the strikers, aged 19 years, a brother of Rettger, the former pitcher of the Cleveland club, now with Milwaukee, was shot dead by a non-union man who had attempted to leave the works on his bicycle and was attacked by a portion of the mob. The police managed with difficulty to rescue him; and the police detail was besieged in a shop and had great difficulty in preventing the lynching of their prisoner. Finally a call for troops was made and two of the four companies under arms were hurried to the scene. The prisoner was finally loaded into a patrol of Mrs. Craven. wagon and about 9:30 Thursday night The race for locked up in the central police station. The latter were dumbfounded.

The facts of the fatal shooting by which Wm. Rettger lost his life were There have been ten students of the Case School of Applied Science who have been working at the hoisting works, and there has been no disposition on the part of the strikers to molest them. Each day they have, after the police had marched out the other workmen, mounted their wheels and gone home. Thursday afternoon A. G. Saunders, one of the Case boys, aged 19, was later than his companions in leaving, and when he followed the crowd which was in pursuit of the police, he was assailed with cries of "seab" and stones-thrown at him. When he reached a point about a block away in front of the Bishop Iron works, he was struck by a stone and a great gash cut in his head. He fell from his wheel and the mob howled "kill the scab," and made a rush for him. As he ran he drew a revolver and shot Rettger through the heart, The squad of police left to guard the Brown works witnessed the shooting and charged down the street, managing to reach Saunders, who was again on the ground, being kicked and buffeted. The police drew their revolvers and managed by great efforts to get the injured man into the office of the Bishop works. The mob outside, which had swelled to 3,000, At Cut Prices This ware is better than infuriated by the sight of the silver, wear longer, look better and is dead man, howled "lynch him" and were preparing to make a charge on the building in which the police had taken refuge, when the police reinforcement attacked the crowd in the rear and clubbed their way to where the imprisoned officers were standing off the crowd. They managed to keep the crowd at bay until a company of militia marched onto the scene when the mob scattered and Saunders was put into a patrol wagon and guarded by a squad of police and the militia taken to the central police station. The whole section of the city where the workmen live is in a state of ferment, as threats have been ly cooler, variable winds made to burn the houses Thursday night where the men who have returned to work live. The police are on the alert, and the streets are being rigidly patrolled. There is also apprehension that the trouble has only begun and that a wavity of the situation. As the non-union men got off the cars at the works they were greeted with cries of "scab," "scab," but no with cries of "scab," "scab," but no violence was offered. By actual count 75 men entered the works. Capt. English has 25 policemen on guard. The police and strikers are of the opinion that the works will be shut down after Friday as it will take a regiment to keep them running. It was rumored Thursday night that the strikers would attempt to blow up the works. Company F and Co. B. Fifth regiment, are quartered in down town blocks under "rush" orders. Each man has 20 rounds of ammunition.

Alleged Increase of Smoking Amo Women Who Ride Bleyeles. The statement that the sale of cigars and eighrettes is stendily decreasing is not borne out by the government sta-tistics, says the New York Sun. For the ten months of the fiscal year ending April 30, 1896, the cigars manufactured for home consumption only in this country numbered 3,508,200,487, or an increase of 68,458,754 over the last fiscal year. In cigarettes an even greater increase is recorded, the total product for the first ten months for home consumption being 3, 338,147,300, or an increase of 617,804,480. Consequently the statement of a decrease, which was attributed to the bicycle, is false. As a matter of fact, there has been a great increase in eigarette smoking through the popularity of the bicycle. This, it is stated, is due largely to cigarette smoking by women, who, very many of them, are well equipped with cigarette cases, eigarettes and matches. A firm making high-grade cigarettes is now turning out more cigarettes specially adapted to the taste of women than for men; and the number of special private brands, bearing the name and address, or crest and motto of the customers, is increasing hand out a cigarette bearing the name in place of a visiting card. Some of these private brands made for New York women cost five dollars per 100. STRONG OF WING.

Birds Are Able to Inflict Quite Serious

Injuries Even Upon Man. There are a good many birds whose strength of wing is sufficient to strike pretty hard blows, capable of bewildering a man, if several of the birds attacked him at once. Some birds depend on their wings as weapons to be used in the duels for sweethearts.

Forest and Stream told some years ago about an owl-whose wing was broken by a dove it had sought to capture and make a meal of.

A correspondent of the National Druggist tells of his first surgical case Village plantation, was hunting at Thursday afternoon fire started at night with a light, when a band of the Galveston wharf, Galveston, Tex., swans, bewildered by the fire, came Santa Fe railroad loaded with wool, in a little pirogue, threw up his arms were broken.

The Sun recently told of a Port Jervis farmer who was knocked from a tree by a flight of wild geese during a fog, and Forest and Stream has several times in the past 20 years told about men who were dazed by birds flying against their heads, partridges (ruffed grouse) being the principal offenders.
